MOTION SEEKING RELIEF FROM TRIAL COUNSEL OF RECORD

Jason Marley and counsel of Record, Brian Knoski has a conflict between each other that is so great, it resulted in a total lack of communication of counsel's part preventing an adequate defense which substantially contributed to the breakdown in communication.

RELIEF SOUGHT

Jason Marley Move the court for an order that's will:

- 1. remove counsel of record off the case and replace him with a competent lawyer of sound mind for his Mr. Marley in
- 2. leave counsel of record with the agreement of the cancellation of the STERN files; order the production of the hereafter telephone records; arguing the locational information in those stern files, including the dates, time telephone number used and the contradictions presented, or
- 3. Have newly given counsel do same and not be limited to the newly discovered evidence sought out and found by Mr. Marley

GROUND FOR RELIEF

4 Mr. Marley 's motion should be granted relief from counsel because (a) counsel neglected to " pick up essential discovery Material ( in the form of telephone records; and not limited to the stern files ) that formed the core of the neglecte governments prosecution and were made available to counsel from the government for some time/ (b) a motion for not to discuss defense or trial strategy with Mr. Marley; and (c) overall, failed to file the above claim's in Acquittal and Motion for New trial .

SUPPORTING MATERIALS

All factual matter's on Which this motion is based set out in the record and the Newly discovered Evidence . Evidence that show's that the Government Misrepresented testimony as ' flatly contradicted ' by the Stern file and discovered Evidence . The STERN file Defense counsel told Marley , and the court he went into Agreement Mr. Marley knowledge and the Proof of his this is the contract with him and the Government .

Mr. Marley has the newly discovered evidence that would support a motion pursuant to frank V. Delaware , 57 I. EC 2d 667 ( 1978) Napue v.illinois 360 u.s 264, 271, 79, s.ct 1173, 3 LEd. 2d 1217 (1956) and U.S. v. berger to suppress the false Statements or the Government's witnesses and to preserve the issue for Direct Appeal.

THERE FORE , it is in the best interest of the court , to relieve Brian Konoski , or in the alternative , order him to
